

Route description to IDA Foundation

By bus, from Amsterdam Central station:

Exit the Central Station through the back (North) entrance, towards the IJ Lake and ferries, where you will find escalators and stairs on either side which will lead you one level up to the Arriva regional bus platform. You can check the monitor for exact platform departures.

Buses 301 (direction Middenbeemster / De Rijp) or 307 (direction Purmerend) will all stop near to IDA Foundation. Please ask the driver to stop at "Splitsing" ★. It is the second stop after Centraal Station (+/- 15 min.). Cross the road and walk towards Broekermeerdijk by following the path along the main road, down the ramp (heading north, see map below) and take a left turn. Follow the canal on your right side and after 500 meters you will see IDA foundation at your left side.

Tickets can be bought inside the bus, but there is also the so-called "OV-chipkaart". An anonymous or disposable OV-chipkaart may be a better option if you are planning to make use of public transport for e.g 1 day / 3 days. These are for sale at transport ticket offices, Albert Heijn supermarkets, the AKO bookshop in the Station, tobacco and magazine shops amongst other locations.

By public transport from Schiphol Airport:
